

"It really is an honor and a memorable experience that I will keep with me forever!"

The Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) invites you to send a high school student from your community to Washington, DC.

The Youth Tour offers:

- Offers rural students an inside look at the broadband industry.
- Educates students about the legislative and governmental process.
- Gives students the opportunity to experience the nation's capital.
- Allows students to meet other youth from rural communities across the country and to form friendships that last a lifetime.
- Generates invaluable company exposure within your local community.
